The works (1x1m canvases), with the data that must also be reported on the back of the work, will be delivered by the finalists to the GEF Reception immediately upon their arrival in Sanremo.

The works will remain the property of the GEF which, with unquestionable and final decision, may exhibit them in other places and use them for social and solidarity projects or donate.

Art. 8

The Organization undertakes to use the utmost care to preserve and protect all works submitted, but relinquishes any liability for theft, loss, fire, acts of vandalism and other accidental or deliberate acts which may occur during the event, or other promotions organized by the artists during EDUC-ARTE, during transportation.

Art. 9

The works will be evaluated by a Jury made up of personalities from the world of culture, school and sport, chaired by Prof. Christian Parisot, appointed archivist by Jeanne Modigliani in 1983 of the "Modigliani Institut Archives Legales", Paris and President of Cerreto d' Art since 2012, associated with Castellania-Coppi.

The judgment of the Jury which will designate the winners and the awarded works is final and unquestionable.

Art. 10

Prizes will go to the winners in each section including the school (Sport Association/Society) selected as the absolute winner. Based on the contents of the paintings submitted the panel may decide against selecting a winning entry in one or more sections, select two or more winners in one section and/or award other prizes.

The panel's decisions are final.

The overall winner will receive the "Prix Modigliani"

The winners of the sections will receive "the Plaque GEF" and each other finalist school will receive a GEF's participation certificate.

All winners will receive their prizes at Teatro Ariston in Sanremo during one of the final performances of GEF. A winner not attending the event cannot claim for their prizes later on.

All finalist schools (Sport Associations/Societies) will have their name printed in the official bilingual Program (Italian/English) of GEF.

Art. 11

All entrants and each school, Sport Association/Societies taking part in the competition finals in Sanremo will undertake to pay for its own board and lodgings. For reasons of organization and event management, finalists, accompanying adults and/or anyone spending nights in Sanremo while taking part in GEF 2024, will need to stay at least two nights and book through GEF, choosing accommodation from our price list on the website www.gef.it in order to gain accreditation and be able to take part in the competition finals. (minimum three nights for schools participating in Theatre or Musical).

Each school, Sport Association/Societies admitted to the finals will be sent a booking-form by the booking organization outlining modes of payment.

Considering the thousands of bookings processed during the previous edition of GEF, early bookings are highly recommended.

The payment of the hotel package must be done on:
